To be born is to be great. For there are possibilities in every tiny human infant.

And for this reason every one should remember that whatever is done to aid the mother, to relieve her of distresses during her trying months, will surely be of marked benefit to the child.
Among the sterling aids is a splendid external remedy known as "Mother's Friend." It is what is called an emmenagogue. It is applied to the abdominal muscles, gently rubbed in, by your own hand guided by your own mind. It makes the muscles pliant, they expand quite naturally and the effect upon the nerves is such that they adjust themselves to the process of expansion so that pain from this source is almost eliminated. Women who use "Mother's Friend" refer to the absence of morning sickness, they are relieved of a great many minor distresses, all apprehensions disappear and those peculiar nervous "attacks" no longer disturb the nights. It is well named "Mother's Friend." Get a bottle today of any drug-gist. Then at once write for a most entertaining and instructive book for all prospective mothers. Address: Bradfield Regulator Co., 292 Lamar Bldg., Atlanta, Ga.
This book explains the physical action of "Mother's Friend," tells why it enforces strength to the muscles and relieves undue strain. It also contains letters of experience from many happy mothers. It is just such a handy little book as every woman will at once recognize as just what she had always wished to read—plain facts about her body. The book is mailed free to any address. veritable garden, rivaling the artistic outdoor gardens. Boxes, filled with blooming red and white sweet peas were placed the entire length of the hall on either side. Double white violets blossomed at their base. The hall mantels and bookcases were covered with dainty ferns and trailing vines, forming a background most artistic for the white candelabra, daisies and red geraniums.

The wide entrances to the drawing rooms and living room were festooned with vines that had been grown in the home conservatory. The guests were directed from the hall into the drawing room, where they were introduced to the members of the receiving line. Miss Keyte Madden introduced Miss Colbert, Miss Conlan, Miss Crank, Miss Marshall, Miss Roberts and Miss Maude Gotcher of Chicago. The room was decorated with ferns, vines and great vases and baskets of pink roses and shasta daisies.

Miss Beatrice von Keller directed to the punch bowl, which was set as by magic in a bed of sweet peas and daisies. Little Misses Helen von Keller, Josephine Dickson and Virginia Bivens served. The score cards for the games were hand-painted High school pennants. The guests found their places by matching baskets of flowers.

After the games the guests were invited into the dining room, which was the most perfectly adorned room. Imagination can picture the table was a blooming flower garden. Red cannas and scarlet geraniums blossomed in the center, surrounded by shasta daisies. Red and white candles in silver holders marked the fencing of the garden. Dainty ices were served in white paraffin flower pots. Each ice was decorated with mint daisies.

Later in the evening the floors were cleared and dancing was enjoyed.

Misses Ruth Batis, Gladys Selvally, Joy Moore, Marie West, Keyte Madden, Beatrice von Keller, Misses Ed Roberts of Dallas, J. T. Crank of Denison, I. W. Folsom, E. P. von Keller, Bratus Hyman and J. A. Bivens assisted the hostess.

The bride-elect's favorite color combination—yellow and white, was expressed most artistically by the hostesses in the reception rooms and dining room.

Quantities of yellow and white daisies placed about amongst the dainty fernery decorations, produced a most pleasing effect. The table was laid in real lace over yellow satin.

Seated with Mr. and Mrs. Weiss and Mr. and Mrs. Leon Kahn were the members of the bridal party, the bride and her mother and father, Mr. and Mrs. R. Lowenstein.

of Ringling, are guests at the R. W. Randol home.

Mrs. Sipes, who has been the guest of her daughter, Mrs. W. L. Kearney, has returned to her home in Oklahoma City.

Miss Rowena Henry is visiting friends in Durant.

Winston-Norris.

Mr. and Mrs. W. L. Winston announce the engagement and approaching marriage of their daughter, Essie, to Mr. George Norris of this city. The wedding will be a simple one, and will be celebrated at the home of the bride's uncle, Dr. J. L. Cox, in northeast Ardmore, on the evening of June 27, at 9 o'clock.

Miss Winston graduated from the Ardmore High school, and for a number of years has been teaching at Madill. Mr. Norris is a traveling salesman for the Dold Packing company.

Stewart-Andrews Nuptials.

A wedding which was of more than usual interest on account of the popularity of the contracting parties was that of Miss Margaret Andrews and Mr. Charles Stewart, which occurred at the home of Mr. and Mrs. L. B. Smith last Wednesday evening at 8:30 o'clock. Rev. J. E. Flow, pastor of the Presbyterian church, officiating.

The wedding was a very quiet affair, only a few intimate friends of the contracting parties being present. The bride's home was in Anna, Ill., but she had taught school in Marietta the past four years, being principal of the High school.

Mr. Stewart has also lived in Marietta four years and has been employed as salesman in the dress goods department of S. Westheimer & company's big store. He came here from Ardmore, where he held a similar position in the store of Westheimer & Daube. He is one of the town's most prominent business men and is also quite popular.

Mr. and Mrs. Stewart departed on the 11:40 train Wednesday night for a bridal trip to Oklahoma City and other points. They have returned home and are at home Rosse hotel.

—Marietta Monitor.

Charles E. Stewart is well known in this city, where he resided for several years before moving to Marietta. He possesses a genial disposition and wins the friendship of those who meet him. He is successful in business, neat in appearance, clean in his manner of living and loyal to home and friends. Southern Oklahoma does not claim a finer example of a splendid citizen than Mr. Stewart is. Ardmore feels close enough to claim him as her own, and Ardmore people join with those of Marietta in wishing the young couple all the health, happiness and good fortune their lives may require.

Some have pride and some regret.
But the good or ill depends,
After all, on what you get."

—Mister Squeegie

There are people who can be satisfied with little if they know their neighbors have less.

This is a poor kind of philosophy.

It is not necessary to recommend any such doctrine to those who buy Diamond Squeegie Tread Tires.

They have a right to demand much, no matter how long their neighbors get out of other tires.

Unbeatable mileage economy, unusual freedom from trouble on the road, and unexcelled service under all conditions are some of the things the man who uses Diamond Squeegie Tread Tires has the right to expect.

And he gets them.
